

MARTHA GARCIA KAMPEN BIO

Martha's career has been focused on cultural communication strategies across multiple industries and sectors, cementing her skills in bringing diverse groups together toward a common purpose and vision. She is the former Chief Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Officer at St Charles Community College. In addition to being a member of the HCC for over a decade and true champion of its efforts, she was the past Chairwomen of the HCCSTL Foundation Board.

Martha is currently the President & CEO of the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce of Metro St. Louis, and she is very excited about this new opportunity, knowing that she is fulfilling her purpose of working with her community. She is committed to serving the HCC members, the Hispanic community, and the greater St Louis metro, lifting us all to new heights of understanding and shared prosperity.
